Common Sense and Your Job

Woman's Life and Love designer. She learned in the now, having her head turned a bit by being thrown with some professional writers. she is certain she

Instead of perfeeting herself in her work along the lines of her specific talent, she wearing herself and every one

HARPER COOLEY out composing perfectly commonplace and stupid articles and editorials on subjects of which she knows nothing, and inflicting all the compositions on her friends. No theme is too stupen-dous for her to handle; she writes reams on politics and world theories, art and conduct, expressing herself in a stilted.

well. If the writing were a mere pastime, to while away leasure lours, as one would take French lessons, or practice a few hours on the piane, there would be no criticism. But this woman, treasure, some gold mine, or marvelous who is a genius in her own practical plane, and can create beautiful things and carn large salaries, is taking time the roofs of their spreading tree by the that might be used to advantage in her door?

KNOW a woman who earns $5000 has starved and slaved, and relinquished a year. She has worked herself up many lines of sensible and remunerative work in the belief that she would land a great job in the famous opera house. Even in her own line-vocal music-she was not content to take lighter roles or to try for vandeville or church or > and it is possible that her voice was good enough for comic opera. But no: her tremendous ego declared that she would be one of the celebrities who sing the mighty parts. Life and love have passed her by. She has memorized the actual roles of eight operas, and has studied several languages, and has almost perished, because she would not see the common sense fact that she had no oice to justify so vast an ambition.

>
> Every one who advised her against insane desire, every teacher, was I will wait for your answer. wrong." She was "right." AND so it goes. We seem possessed to do the thing we cannot do, and scorn the thing we might do well. One is not urging you to settle down into a man when sick in bed.

who is a genius in her own practical prize, only to learn at the end that it line, and can create beautiful thing was located in their own front yard, at and earn large salaries, is taking time the roots of their spreading tree by the that might be used to advantage in her door? own trade, and physical strength that the needs for sleep and rest, in a yearthan useless production of waste-basher I our talents. If we analyze our pos-

It is an exaggerated concest, a false there is a big gambling chance of our I ask because I hope you may help me theory of education, a isnobbish belief being appreciated and rewarded. The be ashamed of and that of writing etmon sense. Even if at first somewhat superior to others. Try not to do this, alted becauses it requires a technical uncongenial, a task often "grows on education along bookish lines. To have one" from the very fact of its being read extensively and educated herself is tagitled enthusiastically and mastered.

Fernance you make vourself superior others. Try not to do this, and you'll soon find that every one is not so frivolous as appearances would make it seem.

Paul and Virginia

By HELENA HOYT GRANT

Ironing Out the Wrinkles

PAUL, she murmured softly. with me and they were sweethearts from the tile Art put on long trousers. Paul pulled reflections fortably in his slippers, settled deeper in the big, comfortable chair by the fireplace, and prepared for the evening com creatione.

It was the account trousers.

Paul pulled reflectively upon the old briar pipe.

'It's funny.' he said, 'about women.
Do you know, dear, then are a bit superior heing sweetheart-? war. I know a lot of she asked in an em-barrassed war. He warried for years and years—but I've never

Taul - why do

"Oh, it was nothing definite." said Virginia smiled.

Virginia slowly, "I asked for Mr.

White and she looked at me as if I had will—

They were both in high school .

white and she looked at me as if I had said something—oh, sort of queer. And somehow, Sara seemed to take her one from Mrs. White and seemed annoyed because I asked her how Arthur was getting on downtown. He's in business for himself now, you know."

"And so—"
"Sara complained year annoyed the long slender fingers in his own hands.
"Listen, brave heart." he whispered, was long as we love each other, and so long as we laye the good sense to trill each other of every little wrinkle.

"And so serve openly that two can from them out, and life's cos-

"You minx" he cried, not intend-

Tomorrow-Paul's Discovery

but when I get in the middle of a song

Arthur can't or won't—for she put it tune will be forever smooth and seambuntly like that—that he won't buy her a new fur cont this year. She talked so—well, so frankly. Virginia she usked, wekelly, paused.

"Dear, why are people like that after they've been married a few years;
Why, Sara used to be simply wild about Why, Cara used to be simply wild about
Tomorrow—Paul's Discovery

The Woman's Exchange

Dear Madam—When sending my wedding announcements a few weeks ago I inclosed "at home" cards. When any one calls after my "at home date should I serve light refreshments. If yo, what would you suggest? It M.

It is nice to serve a support.

was the custom. in that way. I mean they never speak about

Please Tell Me What to Do By. CYNTHIA

To Bobby Your idea of pictures for Chaistman presents is very good.

To "William J. C."

Concert singing.

At the beginning, she was handsome, to any girls through the column. Why and ask him to introduce you to some

Wait Till You Are Well

Dear Cynthia—I am very sorry that I am such a bother but I am sick in bed and want to know if it will be right for me to have my mother call up one of my boy friends and ask him to come up some night. I will be in bed at least another week or two and I will walt for your answer. It is from grieving over the loss of my dear cousin. I am lonely.

TEMPTATION.

conduct, expressing herself in a stilted, bookish atyle, giving nothing fresh or vital to her readers.

"Well, if a woman wants an ayocation, and can be versatile, why in the world shouldn't she?" you query.

NATURALLY, one has a right to self-expression, and some people are so varied in their talents and so well. If the writing were a mere pussion. If the writing were a mere pussion and the solution of the policy of the self-expression, and some people were a mere pussion. If the writing were a mere pussion and the solution of the policy of o help me with their advice. Perhaps ou can tell me how I can break through Bvery few months her health gives most congenial work at our disposal, is there any public nusical club in way, and at times she even goes to a and then bend all our energies toward this city. I would cather live alone improving the quality, or the output, than join this peculiar restless people.

It is an exaggerated concern a false there is a big combined with a sixthere are proving the quality.

read extensively and educated herself is most commendable, but to jump lato the creative game, when she has no new ideas to express and no simple, it abhorout, there is every reason to spleet some other in which we feel we can do better, and then cultivate all our talents in the new grooves.

So IT is with the girl who thinks she wrecked her life because she fancies sho can make grand opera. Possessing a fairly strong contraito—as have thousened to be painters or writers or singers, here is any advice are amusing. You have a despitual sense of humor. You never really give any advice the people could use; you seem afraid to commit yourselves running after false gods, morely to satisfy our vanity, or trying to be painters or writers or singers, here is every reason to spleet some other in which we feel we can do better, and then cultivate all our talents in the new grooves.

But that does not mean, exhausting our self. But tell me, Cynthia, are you a make you seem afraid to commit yourselves running after false gods, morely to satisfy our vanity, or trying to be painters or writers or singers, here is any advice are amusing. You have a despitual sense of humor. You never really give any advice the people could use; you seem afraid to commit yourselves running after false gods, morely to satisfy our vanity, or trying to be painters or writers or singers, here is every reason to spleet some other in which we feel we can do better, and then cultivate all our talents in the new grooves.

But that does not mean, exhausting to be painters or writers or singers, here is every reason to spleet some other in which we feel we can do better. Your remarks and advice are amusing. You have a despitual sense of humor. You never really give any advice the people could use; you seem afraid to commit your self. But tell mo, Cynthia, are you a man or woman, maid or child? I have a hunch you are a man and sit in your office with your feet on your desk and a half-chewed eight in the people could use; you seem afraid to commit your an some new topics. I am a little tired of reading about uninteresting love affairs. Some of the letters in your column are very clever, F. B. P., etc. The topics of love, spooning, rouge, powder and paint have been worn bare.

Let a man fittle outcomes that Julie, Dane's little outcomes that Julie, Dane's little outcomes that some with the same man, and although Hawthorne knows he is entirely unworthy she is afraid to tell the truth for two reality that the same man. Dane is seen parrow in his Here are some more dont's for Betty's

Fifth Don't say anything to the dis-redit of a man to a girl unless you lesire the girl not to go with him for a pity it is that—

"What woman has been here to"What woman has been here to"What woman has been here to"Waybe that's the trouble; sae's worrying because she hasn't a new fur
worrying because she hasn't a new fur coat every year." said Paul grimly. "If "Ob, Mrs. White and Sara Bart coat every year." said Paul grimly. "If "Ob, Mrs. White and Sara Bart coat every year." said Paul grimly. "If came in for a cup of tea this after. a man isn't as wildly in love in the noon, but they didn't say a word, years that come after, he usually keeps it to himself." came in for a cup of tea this after.

noon, but they didn't say a word, rears that come after, he usually keeps for—

"Three women drinking tea and notation."

Three women drinking tea and notation.

"Three women drinking tea and notation."

Three women drinking tea and notation.

"I know. A woman doesn't have to conceit. "No: I'll bet not a single word."

"I know. A woman doesn't have to say anything. Somehow a discontent-work was exchanged." He tweaked her work was exchanged."

"I know. A woman doesn't have to say anything. Somehow a discontent-work was exchanged."

"I know. A woman doesn't have to say anything. Somehow a discontent-work was exchanged."

"I know. A woman doesn't have to say anything. Somehow a discontent-work was exchanged."

"I know a word were entirely characteristic or her.

"And so you have left Dane."

"I stirred uneasily. Surely that much was obvious, it wasn't necessary to claim the down this for what you can get out of him.

"I mean that you've taken a decaption of him.

"I mean that you've taken a decaption of him.

"I knew you would sooner or later."

"I knew you would sooner or later."

"I knew you would sooner or later."

Seventh. Always be a good sport and don't get preved at little things that can't be helpe!

Eighth. Always try to play fair and don't say mean things about 100 fair and don't say mean things about 100 fair and continuous means the say mean things about 100 fair and continuous means the say means "I mean they didn't say anything to a twist of her wrist or a single glance, or, or—a sigh."

The way they seemed to view things."

The way they seemed to view things."

The way they seemed to view things." Virginia was very serious about it.

"For instance?" prompted her huse my dear, we're not talking about us:

band, flinging his paper to the floor. We're talking about them."

"Then you think that we never should I serve light refreshments. If so, what would you suggest? D. M. It is nice to serve a cup of tea to your guests, for most of them will be people you know well, and they will appreciate your hospitality. You can keep some sort of sweet crackers on hand and achieve the whole thing without any trouble. For Photographs To the Editor of Woman's Page: Dear Madam—Will you please site. To the Editor of Woman's Page: Dear Madam—Will you please suggest something I could write on some photographs I am giving to some friends of mine for Christinas? D. C. If you care to write on the photographs, it would be best as a general graphs, it would be best as a general graphs, it would be best as a general graphs, it would be best as a general graph, in fact, it is better you are intuinate with, but it is never good taste to have a lot of writing on the photographs. In fact, it is better with photographs, in fact, it is better with photographs, in fact, it is better with photographs. In fact, it is better with photograph, in fact, it is better with photographs. In fact, it is better with photographs, in fact, it is better with photographs. In fact, it is better with photographs and photographs in fact, it is better with photographs. In fact, it is better with photographs are allowed to use at certain times. This is open all the year round. You should consult a physician about your throat trouble, as no doubt this is what is leading to your numerous colds. A great many people play the piano "by ear" who are unable to read notes, but if one can read music there is no possible harm in picking things out without the photograph. Her Correct Weight Her Correct Weight Law Editor of Woman's Page: There is a swimming pool at the Y. M. C. A., Flifty-second and Sansom streets, that girls are allowed to use at certain times. This is open all the year round. You should consult a physician about your throat trouble, as no doubt this is what is leading to your numerous colds. A great many people play the piano "by ear" who are unable to read notes, but if one can read music there is no possible harm in picking things out without the plant of the controllers, and holdings. The modes of this present year are rich in their suggestions of peasant sources. Many of the new sleeves and holdings. The provided holdings are allowed to use at certain times. This is open all the year round. You should consult a physician a out its help.

Dear Mades:—I am eleven years old if you wanted to make some farcy articles you could get an older person to five dancier. If you wanted to make some farcy articles you could get an older person to five the buy some inext the Woman's Exchange, 114 South Several to five to place them on sale for you at the Woman's Exchange, 114 South Several to five dancing where can I go to free dancing the Woman's Exchange, 114 South Several to five one of the skirts have gone to Jugo-Slavia to: their oscintal character. The above sait of black durety hears the Woman's Exchange, 114 South Several to five one of the skirts have gone to Jugo-Slavia to: their oscintal character. The above sait of black durety hears the Woman's Exchange, 114 South Several to five one of the skirts have gone to Jugo-Slavia to: their oscintal character. The above sait of black durety hears the woman's Exchange, 114 South Several to five one of the skirts have gone to Jugo-Slavia to: their oscintal character. The above sait of black durety hears the woman's Exchange, 114 South Several to five on the work of the woman's Exchange, 114 South Several to five on the woman's Exchange, 114 South Several to five on the accept, reserving a small commission. Or you could consult the Junior Employment Service, at 1522 Cherry strips of self-material which form the strips of self-material which form the lower section of the costume.

YES, SHE'S FROM PARIS!

From her beaver hat to her patent leather slippers-and notice that they have no straps-she is distinctively Paristan. Her bizarre frock of velvet and satin has a foolish, attractive little trimming of two long ribbons bung with balls of beads. The feather on her hat droops disconsolately over her shoulder, meeting up with the collar of her duvetyn cape. And this is lined with satin like the skirt

"Should a Woman Tell?"

By HAZEL DEYO BATCHELOR Copyright, 1921, by Public Ledger Company

Hawthorne Emery decides to marry Done Merrill without telling write you. Well, Cynthia. I could hardly expect you to answer anything as definite an that.
Centhia. Why don't you introduce some new topics? I am a little tired of sons. Dane is very narrow in his ideas about women, and Cranford with me and they were sweethearts is from the tile Art put on long trougers."

Inst:

First. Don't try to spoon with a girl the tirst time you take her out, even if you think she'll let you.

Second. Don't come to see a girl time she interferes. But when Julie Hawthorne's girlish love letters if she interferes. But when Julie threatens to run away with Blake. Second. Don't come to see a girl time and again and never take her out. She does not want to stay home all the time, even if she isn't a gold digger.

Third. Don't ever say anything depreciatory about one girl to another, no matter how much you dislike her.

Fourth, Never make lovo to a girl unless you mean it. It is not good sportsmanship to tell a girl you love her, even if it is done by most of the mais sex.

CHAPTER XLVII Janet Advises desire the girl not to go with and to her own good.

Sixth, Don't ever betray a girl's trust in you.
And here is a list of don'ts for girls:
And here is a list of don'ts for girls:
I TOLD Janet everything there was to tell. I went back to the past and dug up all the details of my first meeting with Cranford Blake, and when I was finished. Janet sat for a long time to the but never two at once.
Third. Never give a man the impression rou are going to do a thing when so that of doing it.

Fourth If you do give a man that and when she finally spoke, her first the past and dug up all the details of my first meeting with Cranford Blake, and when I was finished. Janet sat for a long time looking into space. I was impatient for her to say something. I was eager to know her thoughts on the subject.

Fourth If you do give a man that fourth If you do give a man that impression, don't be mad at him if he impression, don't be mad at him if he be went on.

"Janet!" I exclaimed. "How can chance for future happiness. In the

Peasant Sleeves

"Janet." I exchanged. How and change for future happiness. In the past you've loved him too much. You've been humble, you've been too cager to fooiish episode of the past simply served to bring matters to a head, but it might love been anything else."

"Janet." I exchanged. How and change for future happiness. In the past you've loved him too much. You've been humble, you've been too cager to give in. You remember that I warned you long ago about this very thing?"

Yes, I remembered. But suppose

in Duretyn Suit

to bring matters to a head, but it high
have been anything else.'

I was suddenly angry. Every imI was suddenly angry. Every imJunet that I had rose in me in a desire to protect Dane against Janet. But Janet went on speaking before I could and wait, when all the time he might
have been anything else.'

Yes, I remembered. But suppose
Janet were wrong, and Dane never showed that he wanted me back. Would
and wait, when all the time he might
have been anything else.'

I was suddenly angry. Every imJanet were wrong, and Dane never showed that he wanted me back. Would
and wait, when all the time he might
have been anything else.'

Yes, I remembered. But suppose
Janet were wrong, and Dane never showed that he wanted me back. Would
and wait, when all the time he might
have been anything else.'

I was suddenly angry. Every imto protect Dane against Janet, But I be strong enough to sit back quietly
and wait, when all the time he might
have been anything else.'

I was suddenly angry. Every imto protect Dane against Janet, But Janet were wrong, and Dane never showed that he wanted me back. Would
and wait, when all the time he might
have been anything else.'

"Of course you were foolish to keep silent about anything that happened in the past. I know that you married Dane blindly, but you have lived with

The Question Corner Today's Inquiries

Describe an original and quaintly ornamental bit of usefulness for the desk. 2. In what easy way can a pretty darning basket be made out of a left-over piece of cretonne? 3. How is a fanciful lamp shade for the living room shaped?

What gift which she has made nerself can the small girl give her chum for Christmas? 5. In what way is a plain-colored silk scarf made distinctive?

G. Describe an exquisite combination of color and materials for the evening gown or the more elabo rate afternoon frock.

Yesterday's Answers 1. The National League of Women Voters will have its third annual convention next spring, in Baltimore. 2. An attractive corsage bouquet of artificial flowers conceals behind its silken buds a useful small Three rubber balls are used with an unusual set of ninepins which a child would like as soon as he saw, for they are made into little animal and boy and girl figures, cash one having the instructive cach one having the feature of holding a letter of the alphabet. . The small girl can make a handkerchief as a Christmas gift for her older sister by taking a square of colored linen, and turning it down all around with a plain bem. By having the lower half of a long sleeve of dark satin or vel-vet made of black net with n metal thread design, a lighter touch will be given. An enchanting pair of gloves is fashioned of gray kith with 'cuffs" which are drawn in the wrists with cords that have bright beads on the ends.

ful fashions of quite a number of years ago. One shop has taken a number of Such interesting figures with long belllike skirts and narrow constricted waists. These prints make delightful is aware and painfully conscious of her

a Purse

waists. These prints make delightful own beauty.

additions to the room that is furnished in antiques. I know one woman who has two of these pictures she prizes beyond all words. This shop has put a beyond all words. This shop has put a beyond all words. This shop has put a beyond all words. special Christmas price on the pic- about each other!" tures, reducing them all to $1. I know you will like them. Have you seen the new fortune tops?

They resemble in shape the put-and-take tops. But these, if you please, tell of the state of affections of your best beloved. One twirls the top and who knows what side may come up? He loves me, he loves me not, or much, or knows what side may come up? He loves me not, or much, or little, or passionately. The top is silver finished, with a little ring so that it can be worn about the neck on a chain, and the little thing comes apart and can be filled with perfume. An mirror, or has just come away, it almost worse.

Her voice becomes thin and her words such a silly, gushy way.

The question before the bouse is, Why doesn't she realize how much more attractive she would be if she would just put the thought of her own charm out of her mind? and can be filled with perfume. interesting and unusual novelty for $1.

For names of shops address Woman's Page Editor or phone Walnut 3000 or Main 1601 between the hours of 9 and 5.

Read Your Character By Digby Phillips

Rumbling Chuckles

Voices and laughs, like feet and footsteps, tell more about character than the average person realizes. And the laugh is to the voice what the footstep is to the foot.

Laughs are less subject to control

With carefully artless manner, she turns so that you will have to see the most becoming view of her face—the one that an artist told her was like a Titian or a Rommey or a Gainsborough or somebody.

And she is so busy thinking about granting you the best in her looks that is to the foot.

Laughs are less subject to control than voices, or at least less likely to be controlled. The man who has learned to use his voice as a concealment rather than a revelation of his mental processes will very often betray himself in his learner.

Most salesmen tell jokes to amuse their prospects, to break down their reserve, and put them in a good bumor. The joke is good for this pur-pose. But if the salesman only knows it, it is also a splendid means by which to get a quick "line" on the character and temperament of his prospect.

The salesman who gets a rumbling chuckle from his prospect is likely to find himself up against a "tough proposition." In the first place, he won't get much of a change to respect to the salesman.

get much of a chance to stampede him, for this sort of laugh denotes a strong and vigorous character well under con-And he'll have to work pretty hard him now for some time, and you must chucklers have a constitutional aversion have learned to realize that he is narrow, that his ideas about women are archate. Dane is the husband first, the old-fashioned husband, and he hasn't the faintest idea how to go about being the understanding lover. You may be furjous with me for saving this Haven't you noticed that most polifurjous with me for saving this Haven't you noticed that most polifurious with me for saying this. Haw-thorne, even now after what has hap-nened. But in your heart of hearts you know that I'm speaking the truth whether you admit it or not."

Tomorrow

Haven't you noticed that most politicians, of high or low degree, are rumbling chucklers?

Tomorrow—Fussy Hands

What Ambition Does

Rather than lose the opportunity to secure the much coveted "K" issued by the Kansas State Normal School for excellency in athletics, fourteen girl students recently hiked ten miles in a blinding snowstorm, covering the distance in two and one-half hours.

In connection with Americanization work in Chesses the server are rumble in the room. A young girl is introduced to older women and these extend her acquaintance in the same manuer.

More informal and much greater fun is the self-introduction at a gathering intended to be jolly. This is a sort of game sometimes used to conliven the party at the start. A man takes the center of the floor and bows low with burlesque solemnity before he amounces: "I am one Henry Hilton, single-ton" (or Benedict), "and I am glad that you all have the pleasure of meeting me," or some such nonsense. The girls and women need only how, simile and declare themselves thus: "I am Constance Carey, Miss Carey," or "I am Mrs. Arthur Blake." "Then you don't think that I'm to blame for what happened in the past?" "Certainly not!" Janet said crisply. "How could any one blame you? You did nothing wrong." bane excellency in athletics, fourteen girl students recently hiked ten miles in a I was silent. The thought kept stab-bing me that Dane thought so. Dane was bitterly disappointed in me, things would never be the same again.

"Hawthorne, you did the only thing In connection with Americanization the world that could have been done work in Chicago, it is said that so many foreign women attended one of the he'll want you back. He'll think things schools to learn English and brought over, he'll realize that his pride their babies with them that the school authorities sent out an emergency call his love for you. Down reads to the selvage this love for you. They reads the selvage reads the selvage reads to the selvage reads to the selvage reads to the selvage reads.

for volunteer nurses.

The Beaut ful Girl Who Cannot Forget Adventures With That She Has Been Told of Her Beauty

SOME of you will recall Godey's Is Not So Popular as She Imagines She Must Be-Women Are Disgusted and Men Cease to Admire Her this magazine and framed them in little dark frames. Such quaint pictures:
Such interesting figures with long bell-like skirts and second told the poor thing that she was besutiful and she can't overcome it."

You can well understand why she is the skirts and second told the poor thing that she was besutiful and she can't overcome it."

But it is a great handicap to a girl's yersation immediately after having be popularity among both men and women to be forever thinking more about how she looks when she says something, than its say on the says something.

She gives you act as the reflection, then.
She gives you the pleased smile which she thinks you should be giving her bebeauty.

she thinks you should be giving her because she is so lovely.

She gives you the benefit of that word "wonderful," or "I wonder" or whatever it may be that makes her mouth take such a pretty shape.

With carefully arrices manner, she life utterly indifferent to any such fact.

She seems to know that the such fact.

WHAT'S WHAT

By HELEN DECIE

At a large party where several per sons meet for the first time it is usual for the hosters to introduce each man-to the next group, and one of these presents him to the nearest acquaintance,

To Save Time

just as you go on playing wildly and

In the Hope Chest A dozen bath-towels is none too many, and a colored monogram is most effective on them. Jack's may be blue and Jane's rose, and there may be a fat little pile of colored-border initialed wash-cloths to match each set of bath-

Of ordinary towels a housekeeper fur two needs another dozen or more, and these may be of plain hemstitched linen or may be effectively needleworked in some manner. A white monogram or an initial is in order for them, placed up from the hem the distance of an inch

Dish-towels—unmonogrammed unless some friend is terribly devoted—of checked linen toweling, blue and white or red and white, are a requisite-dozen anyhow, and no harm in more.

Xmas Novelties DESK SETS-FANCY ARTICLES Made by Shut-Ins

"Sure, hubby, I never mind your bringing an unexpected guest home

205 South 16th Street

to dinner. It just means another plate and more-New, Coated, Sanitary Wrapper

ANCRE With the Genuine Roquefort Flavor CHEESE Made by SHARPLESS, Phila. 11

The Iron Food for Vitality You Need It-"The Iron Food for Vitality

Raisin Pie Men are quickly refreshed at might by a dessert like this

Stewed Raisins

Serve for breakfast every morning and get your daily iron this way

Cover Sun-Maid Seeded Raisins with cold water and add a slice of lemon or orange. Place on fire; bring to a boil and al-low to simmer for one hour. Sugar may be added but is not necessary, as Sun-Maid Beeded

Raisins contain 75 per cent

natural fruit sugar.

Yes, wise methers realize that Puddine is nourishing and give the children all they want of it. A lighter lunch or dinner can be served if Puddine is the dessert. Eight flavors, Rose Vanilla, Cream Vanilla, Rex Vanilla, Chocclate, Orange, Lemon, Almond and Spice. At All Grocers, 10c, 15c.

Tomorrow-Waiting

Wise Mothers Serve

under the circumstances, your leaving bim, I mean. If he really loves you.

Hope bloomed suddenly in thy heart.

Fruit Puddine Co., Baltimore, Md. THE TRANSPORT OF THE PROPERTY OF THE PROPERTY

The finest butter

in America!

At all our Stores

That Dainty Loaf

supplies food-iron-a builder of healthful vitality in women-their greatest charm Here's a dainty luncheon so delicious that you'll be apt to overlook the healthful benefits it brings - if thinking only of its luscious flavor. Those benefits are due to the food-iron content of the raisins.

brings rosy cheeks, bright eyes. But more than that, a proper daily iron supply, if long continued, builds strong, healthy, vigorous vitality.

est charm

iron daily, yet that need is vital. Get it through right foods—this luscious raisin bread is one Have it toasted every morning, with your coffee; and thus

Food-iron fortifies the blood-

That vitality, that magnetic force, is "personality" and is yours, and every woman's great-

Real raisin bread is made with lots of raisins. Insist on it. Firstclass bakers do not stint.

baking at home.

ite breakfast toast.

You need but a small bit of get the benefits of regularity. Try today-this captivating, vitaliz-ing food. It will be your favor-

Delicious raisin bread is sold by bake shops and groceries everywhere. Buy of them to save less (grown without seeds);

Clusters (on the stem). Also a Raisins are cheaper by 30 per cent than formerly-see that you fine, ever-ready dessert.

get plenty in your foods.

SUN-MAID RAISINS

Use Sun-Maid Raisins, made from California's finest table grapes-American raisins, processed and packed immaculately in a great modern California plant. Seeded (seeds removed); Seed-

Free We'll send 100 Cut This Out and Send I Recipes in a free book to any-

CALIFORNIA ASSOCIATED RAISIN CO.

Dept. P-418-34, F. (4 1)

one who mails coupon. Also new booklet "Eating Raisins for Health and Beauty." Munbership 11.000 Crowers

California Associated Raisin Co.

Dept. P-418-34, Fresno, Calif. Photos word top copy of your tree book our Mand Rectical